Volunteer Coaches Needed!

Are you interested in coaching a youth sport? The Parks & Recreation Department is always looking for volunteer coaches who are dedicated to serving as a positive role model to the youth of our community. Coaches will be responsible for teaching the children good sportsmanship, discipline, and teamwork, as well as the rules and fundamental skills of the game. Parks and Recreation has coaching opportunities in the sports of baseball, softball, soccer, flag football, kickball and wrestling. If you are interested in coaching a youth sport, stop by the Parks and Recreation office and fill out a coaching application today!
